ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I said at a meeting with the press earlier today how much I appreciate the Republicans supporting cloture on this minimum wage bill. I hope we are going to have a good bipartisan vote on this bill. There is no question in my mind we will. We have done ethics reform. We are going to do the minimum wage and then move on to something else. I hope we can work on a bipartisan basis.

Mr. President, as you know, we have debate on Iraq coming up when we finish this bill. We are trying to figure out exactly what we are going to be debating because it is a moving target on both sides. We hope to get that done.

I want the record to reflect that I think we are making good progress, and we are doing some legislating. That is very important to the Senate and the country.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, we are now close to completing action on all germane amendments that are pending to H.R. 2. It is my understanding that Senator KYL will be here in the morning, and we will resume the bill to debate his amendments. Therefore, Members should be advised to expect roll-call votes tomorrow, and the votes could occur prior to noon.

Does the distinguished Republican leader have anything to say?

Mr. MCCONNELL. No. Let me say to my friend, the majority leader, I think we have gotten off to a good start this year. We are close to accomplishing two important pieces of legislation with overwhelming bipartisan support. We look forward to moving ahead with a rather contentious debate next week but a debate we obviously ought to have. It is the most important issue in the country with a lot of passionate feelings on both sides of the issue, and we will have a grand debate in the tradition of the United States Senate next week.
